VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES NEW BRANCH MANAGER

South Burlington, VT – Bernie Isabelle, President and CEO of Vermont Federal Credit Union, is pleased to announce that Jennifer Ciechanowicz has returned to the Credit Union as Branch Manager in the South Burlington market.

Jennifer, who previously worked with Vermont Federal as a Teller and later a Loan Officer, returns to the Credit Union with more than fourteen years of financial services experience. A native Vermonter, Jennifer has worked at State Employees Credit Union, a $23 billion credit union based in Raleigh, NC as well as most recently for Vermont State Employees Credit Union as a branch manager. In addition to her previous roles as Teller, Loan Officer, and Branch Manager, Jennifer has also held the position of Mortgage Processor. Jennifer currently resides in Saint Albans, VT with her family and two adopted rescue dogs; Frankie and Alex.

Jennifer is an avid supporter of Credit Unions and says “once I was introduced to the Credit Union’s way of banking there was no going back”. Jennifer continues to say that “the Credit Unions dedication to member service and employee education is top notch” and that she is “very excited for the opportunity to rejoin Vermont Federal”.

Vermont Federal is happy to welcome Jennifer back to the Credit Union in her new role as Branch Manager at our South Burlington location.

Vermont Federal is a $300 million plus financial institution, currently serving over 30,000 members. Members are part of a cooperative, meaning that they share ownership in the credit union and elect a voluntary board of directors. Vermont Federal Credit Union provides membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Chittenden, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Franklin, Washington, or Addison Counties in Vermont. Vermont Federal Credit Union is committed to providing support to the communities that it serves and to make a decided difference in the lives of its members and other Vermonters.
