VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTOR

Burlington, VT – Vermont Federal Credit Union’s Board of Directors has chosen a new director, Francis Broughton.

Francis (“Frank”) Broughton has been appointed to the Vermont Federal Credit Union Board of Directors to fill a vacancy due to the sudden passing of long-time board member Gilbert Tabor. Frank is an established business owner of Broughton Farm Supply, a New York and New England wholesale operation, and True Value Hardware Store located in Bridport, Vermont. He is presently on the Board of St. Mary’s School, previously serving as Chairman, and a past member of the boards of Middlebury Union High School and Cornwall Elementary. He is a member of and has served in many capacities with the New York Milk & Foods Sanitarians, The Twin State Sanitarians, and the North East Dairy Practices Council and is currently serving his third elected term as Assistant Superior Court Judge in Addison County. Frank is an honorary life member of the Knights of Columbus and serves on the St. Bernadette’s Parish Council. He resides in Cornwall with his wife of fifty years, Mary Ann. They have three children, Francine, Adam and Allison and four grandchildren. Frank enjoys golfing, bowling and woodworking.
