VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES NEW COLLECTIONS SUPERVISOR

Burlington, VT – Bernie Isabelle, President and CEO of Vermont Federal Credit Union, is pleased to announce that Terry Irish has joined the Credit Union as the Collections Supervisor.

Terry comes to the Credit Union with over twenty-five years of financial services and Collections experience, working at financial institutions in Raleigh, North Carolina and Williston, Vermont. Most recently, Terry worked in North Carolina as a Collection Manager for a credit union, and after 14 years is glad to be returning to Vermont. Terry prefers to refer to her job as recovery instead of collections and says her favorite part of recovery is “the personal interaction of working with members”. Terry enjoys hiking, tennis, swimming, and the scenery of the Vermont Mountains.

Vermont Federal is proud and excited to welcome Terry to our team.

Vermont Federal is a $300 million plus financial institution, currently serving over 30,000 members. Members are part of a cooperative, meaning that they share ownership in the credit union and elect a voluntary board of directors. Vermont Federal Credit Union provides membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Chittenden, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Franklin, Washington, or Addison Counties in Vermont. Vermont Federal Credit Union is committed to providing support to the communities that it serves and to make a decided difference in the lives of its members and other Vermonters.
