VERMONT FEDERAL STAFF MEMBER SELECTED FOR LEADERSHIP CHAMPLAIN

Burlington, VT – Vermont Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce Hannah Cuseo will be joining Leadership Champlain class of 2017.

Hannah Cuseo, Vermont Federal Credit Union's Vice President of Business Services, was selected for a nine-month community leadership program, Leadership Champlain. Hannah will be among 40 others working together to learn and make changes in the State of Vermont. The committee focuses on the topics of Human Services, Government and Politics, Education, Criminal Justice, Energy, Business and the Economy, Health Care, as well as Civic Engagement and Community Services. In the spring, the committee will develop a community service project on behalf of a community non-profit organization. Cuseo explained, "Leadership Champlain is a great opportunity to learn about many issues facing our community, hear from community and industry leaders, and engage with others over those issues.” She continued, “I’m excited to learn more about our State and community and get involved.”
