VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION MAKES DONATION TO ALL BREED RESCUE

Burlington, VT – Kimberly Brown, Vice President of Branch Operations of Vermont Federal Credit Union, is pleased to announce the donation of pet supplies and over $700 to All Breed Rescue

During the months of March and April, Vermont Federal Credit Union held a pet supply drive in their South Burlington branch. Community members were able to drop-off pet food, toys, bones, and other pet supplies to be donated to All Breed Rescue of Williston, Vermont. Members could also donate funds. Treasurer for All Breed Rescue, Carolyn Paddock-Moore, and rescue dog, Cherokee, stopped by the branch to accept the donation of two large boxes and $725.

Heather Casavant, a Member of the Credit Union's Call Center and a key organizer of the fundraiser, shared, "At the South Burlington branch we are all huge animal lovers and big time supporters of organizations who help with providing homes for animals, so organizing a fundraiser for All Breed Rescue was a natural cause for us.” She added, “Anyone looking to adopt a great dog should visit All Breed Rescue and ask to meet Cherokee.”
