VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS SERVICES

BURLINGTON, VT- Jean Giard, President and CEO of Vermont Federal Credit Union, is pleased to announce that Kevin DeCausemacker has been promoted to Director of Business Services at Vermont Federal Credit Union.

Kevin joined Vermont Federal Credit Union as a Business Lender in August of 2015 and has been an essential part of the Business Lending team for the past year and a half.

Previous to his employment at Vermont Federal, Kevin worked at Vermont Economic Development Authority as a Commercial Credit Analyst and New England Federal Credit Union as a Credit Analyst. Kevin has over 10 years of industry experience and is eager to continue building relationships with our business members in this new role. “Seeing the direct impact I have on a business’ growth is the most rewarding aspect of the job,” he explains. “While I’m always excited to take on a new challenge, I’m most looking forward to the opportunity to continue working with some really great people, both staff and members of the Credit Union.”

Vermont Federal Credit Union is a $475 million-plus financial institution, with six locations currently serving nearly 36,000 members. Members are part of a cooperative, meaning they share ownership in the Credit Union and elect a volunteer board of directors. Vermont Federal Credit Union provides membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Chittenden, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Franklin, Washington, or Addison Counties in Vermont. Vermont Federal Credit Union is committed to providing support to the communities it serves and to make a decided difference in the lives of its members and other Vermonters.
