On Thursday, March 23rd, staff members from Vermont Federal Credit Union's Milton Branch volunteered at the Milton Community Dinner, collecting dinnerware, sorting compostables and recycling, and cleaning up after the event. The dinner was the second in a series of dinners provided by the Milton Recreation Department in conjunction with the Milton Family Center and Milton School district. The dinners are intended to encourage healthy eating and community involvement.

Kevin Parish, Milton Branch Manager and volunteer, shared, "The students and staff did a wonderful job of preparing a healthy meal which served over 400 Milton community members." He continued, "We were proud to help serve and assist our community throughout the dinner, and we are excited to be involved in future dinners."

Vermont Federal Credit Union is a $490 million-plus financial institution, with six locations currently serving over 36,000 members. Members are part of a cooperative, meaning they share ownership in the Credit Union and elect a volunteer board of directors. Vermont Federal Credit Union provides membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Chittenden, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Franklin, Washington, or Addison Counties in Vermont. Vermont Federal Credit Union is committed to providing support to the communities it serves and to make a decided difference in the lives of its members and other Vermonters.
