VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES NEW BURLINGTON BRANCH MANAGER

Burlington, VT – Jean Giard, President and CEO of Vermont Federal Credit Union, is pleased to announce that Nicole Callahan has been promoted to Branch Manager of the Burlington branch.

Callahan, who has worked at Vermont Federal since 2014, has worked with many members completing transactions and processing loans as a Floating Teller, Head Teller and a Branch Supervisor.

“My favorite part of the job is working with our members and I’m looking forward to continuing to do that,” says Callahan. She adds, “I’m also looking forward to growing our team and increasing our community involvement efforts here in Burlington.”

Currently a resident of Chittenden County, Callahan enjoys staying active and spending time with her family.

Vermont Federal is a $490 million-plus financial institution, with six locations currently serving over 36,000 members. Members are part of a cooperative, meaning they share ownership in the Credit Union and elect a volunteer board of directors. Vermont Federal Credit Union provides membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Chittenden, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Franklin, Washington, or Addison Counties in Vermont. Vermont Federal Credit Union is committed to providing support to the communities it serves and to make a decided difference in the lives of its members and other Vermonters.
